

Eric de GIALLULY, MD

Founding President (1990) and CEO of MEDIBRIDGE

Education

MD: University of Paris XII

1982

Specialization in Anaesthesiology, Intensive Care, Infectiology, Clinical Nutrition

Specialities and main current activities

Drug Development, Regulatory Affairs, Clinical Trials.

Consultant for the pharmaceutical industry in development planning, clinical research, regulatory affairs, pharmaceutical affairs, marketing strategy.

Consultant for start-ups in biotechnology (project assessment, and implementation)

Previous work experience

■ Medical Director and Director of Development and Regulatory Affairs, Lederle Laboratories France

1987-90

Responsible for Clinical Development, Registration, Scientific Documentation and Medical Support for the Marketing Department.

Management of personnel, including physicians, clinical research associates, pharmacists and information scientists.

Main therapeutic areas:

Oncology, Antibiotics, Psychiatry, Cardiology, Rheumatology, Vitamins, OTC products.

Implementation of preclinical and clinical trials. Preparing files for health care authorities.

■ Medical and Project Manager for Clinical Nutrition, Rhône-Poulenc

1985-87

Medical responsibility for a range of products for Anaesthesiology, Intensive Care and Clinical Nutrition.

Responsible of a research team for clinical development and industrial transposition for clinical nutrition products.

■ Senior Hospital Doctor

1982-85

Intensive Care Unit, Henri Mondor University Hospital, Créteil-Paris XII (1982-1984)

Anaesthesiology, University Hospital, Tours (1984-1985)

■ External Consultant to University Hospital, Créteil-Paris XII (1985-93)